DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sakuma et al. (U.S. Patent 6,292,305).

Regarding claims 1-4, Sakuma et al. disclose means to create minuscule images (column 5, lines 30-34); wherein alphanumeric images are created (column 5, lines 30-34); wherein images are created by reflection (column 23, lines 25-47 and column 25, lines 38-53); further wherein images are created by/in the light pulse (column 6, lines 21-67).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Betensky et al. (U.S. Patent 5,745,301) show lens system for producing small images. Tanaka et al. (U.S. Patent 5,754,712) show a device for searching any character string of a sentence input as an image. And Braat (U.S. Patent 6,317,276) shows an optical scanning device for reading and writing information in an information plane.
